Thou soft flowing Avon

(1833-5)

D. Arne

Larghetto

moonlight dance round his green bed for hallowd the turf is which pillowd his head the fairies by moonlight dance round his green bed for hallowd the turf is which pillowd his head.

The love stricken Maiden the fighting young Swain
Here rove without danger and figh without pain
The sweet bud of beauty no blights shall here dread
For hallowd the turf is which pillowd his head

3

Here Youth shall be fam'd for their love and ^{their} truth
Here smiling Old Age feels the spirit of youth
For the raptures of fancy here Poets shall tread
Fo hallowd the turf is which pillowd his head

Flow on silver Avon in song ever flow
Be the Swans on thy bosom still whiter than snow Ever full be thy stream like his fame may it spread
And the turf ever hallowd that pillows his head
